Your commitment towards your oral health & smile is greatly appreciated. This brochure explains how to use a disclosing solution bottle.

HOW TO USE A DISCLOSING SOLUTION

WHAT IS DENTAL PLAQUE?

It is a sticky, colourless film of bacteria that constantly forms on all teeth.

It is often mistaken as food left on tooth surfaces.

WHAT IS TARTAR?

A hardened plaque is called Calculus or Tartar.

It is yellow or brown in colour.

This can be removed only by a dentist.

IS PLAQUE HARMFUL?

Yes, it leads to: 1. Gum disease 2. Tooth decay 3. Bad breath

WHAT DOES A DISCLOSING SOLUTION DO?

It STAINS plaque, tartar & muck that was missed when you brush & floss along your gum lines & between your teeth. Pink stained areas identify & disclose plaque.

HOW TO USE A DISCLOSING SOLUTION?

- * Take a cotton ear bud or small cotton pellet.
- * Put few drops of disclosing solution on it.
- * Apply all over your teeth.
- * Rinse immediately with water.
- * All areas of teeth harbouring plaque, calculus, muck will be stained dark pink in colour compared to the remaining areas.
- * This should be followed by thorough brushing & flossing till all the color is brushed off.
